when you need a new book to read find the book here never worry not to find The Crown of Eden:

1 of 1 review helpful Too many problems By rmhcolo The plot of this story is really very interesting and it could have made a great book but for a few things The first is that instead of being a Christian allegory or making points in either a subtle or realistic way the author makes them by having the main characters repeat them over and over Many conversations between characters basically consist of 2 people exchan Book by Tom Williams
